Redefining outdoor luxury[°]

Moments of tranquility, connection and fascination are what matter most in life. At Manutti, we are convinced that outdoors, under the energising, radiant sun is the best place to enjoy these moments in the presence of the people we love. With our luxurious furniture designs, we seek to inspire, delight and bring people together outside.

Furniture isn't simply where we sit, eat our meals and recline: it constitutes a vital frame for our experiences – especially in the company of others. This is why we blend functionality and ease-of-use with beauty, imagination, and superior design in our tables, chairs, loungers, sofas and footrests.

In the upcoming 2024, we promise you an unparalleled experience. Immerse yourself in the journey of Muyu[°], our latest collection that embodies the essence of craftsmanship. Muyu[°] presents a captivating range of lounge pieces, complemented by an exquisite coffee table and a refined dining chair. Discover the allure of Yiko[°], a dining chair harmonizing teak with a wicker seat, an embodiment of both elegance and comfort.

We also have exciting additions to our existing collections. In the Sandua[°] collection, we proudly present our new lounge chair - a true embodiment of innovation. Our Sunrise[°] collection welcomes two new companions: the chaise lounge and the double sun lounger - specially designed for sharing outdoor moments with your loved ones. We proudly introduce our renewed Napoli[°] table collection. Whether you favor the timeless round shape or the contemporary allure of the rectangular design, these tables offer boundless possibilities to curate your ideal outdoor dining experience. Last but not least, elevate an outdoor lifestyle with two new teak tables in the Air[°] & Torsa[°] collection. Crafted with precision and designed to perfection, these tables are set to become the centerpiece of your gatherings.

As always, Manutti is as versatile as you are. With exclusive, timeless pieces that best suit your way of life, taste and desire for comfort ... wherever you are, from sunrise to sunset.

Sandua[•]

Designed by Robin Hapelt

It is a thing of beauty when craftsmanship and innovation combine in perfect harmony. Distinctly different from one another, yet perfectly in sync, each piece in the Sandua collection is an ode to true artisanship. An organically shaped woven shell is cradled by the sculpted wooden base. Designer Robin Hapelt developed a both modern and unique take on traditional weaving techniques, using not one, but two different materials, resulting in unmatched aesthetics as well as comfort. Topped off with opulent cushions, Sandua radiates sophisticated splendour.
